

The ATS continues with its regular program of technical sessions at all regional groups. These are very well attended with new members attracted at each event.

Last year's publication on the "The History of Australian Tunnelling" is a significant achievement for the ATS making much general information on tunnelling accessible to members and the general public.