A Royal Opening of WTC 2017

REGISTER NOW

Hello.

It is with great honor and pride, we can announce that His Royal Highness Crown Prince of Norway will open the World Tunneling Congress 2017 Monday the 12th of June.

The Crown Prince carries out a wide range of official assignments in Norway. He is the Royal Patron of multiple organizations and is regularly accompanied by large business delegations during official visits abroad.

Looking for hotel room for the congress?

We have booked a good number of hotel rooms available for participants of WTC 2017. Bergen is a busy city, and in order to make sure that all our participants have a room while staying in Bergen, we have made some reservations.

A multi talent will lead us through the opening session

Arne Hjeltnes is a man of many talents. With an economical background from The BI Norwegian Business School and Cambridge, most known in Norway as a writer, humorist, poet, programme-leader both in radio & TV.

Our trips and tours are almost sold out!

In connection to the WTC 2017 we are offering a set of trips and tours that includes a visit to many interesting projects. They are very popular, and we have to remind you about the principle; first come first served!

Register now and reserve your place at the conference!
